Dear Sir,

We write to state that we are in urgent need of the services of a qualified engineer to supervise the construction of our Factory Buildings on the Mysore Road which has already been commenced. The name of Mr. S. B. Basappa, Permanent Sub Overseer in the Government Public Works Department and who was Honorary Assitant Engineer in the Military Engineering Service has been recommended to us in this connection.

He is a temp. S.O.

We request you kindly to lend his services to us as Honorary Assistant Engineer, temporarily for a period of six months in the first instance. We are agreeable to pay him a consolidated salary of Rs. 175/- P.M. inclusive of all allowances and subject to any Leave and Pensionery Contribution as per M. S. R. being made by Mr. Basappa himself.

S.O is necessary for him, as he is now only an S.O after his reversion to a dept.

We request you kindly to obtain the orders of Government for placing the officer's services at our disposal on the above terms. If he is agreeable to the terms, we shall be glad to have his services with effect from 1st October 1946.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
for MYSORE AIRMEC. LTD,

SECRETARY.
